NEW GOODS.

Mrs. Anna Lang on Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, has just opened up a stock of new and fashion able millinery goods. She has one hundred and fifty different styles of hats and bonnets, besides a large assortment of ribbons, flowers and notions of all sorts, all of which will be sold at the lowest prices.

ICE CREAM SALON.

As warm weather is approaching the lovers of ice cream will be glad to learn that Misses Sampson & Clarkson have fitted up and refurbished, in elegant style, their ice cream parlor. Their menu and soda fountain has also been put in running order, and nothing is wanting about the establishment to make the pleasure and comfort of their patrons complete.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS.

For a few days there will be on exhibition and for sale at the Arlington house a splendid collection of flowers of all kinds. Ladies invited to call.

CASINO BALL.

The Cairo Casino society will give a grand ball and supper at John School's Washington Hall, on Monday, June 2, 1873. In the forenoon of that day the society will parade, displaying for the first time a beautiful new silk flag. It is the object of the committee appointed to make the proper arrangements that this ball shall be one of the grandest ever given in this city.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL.

This popular hotel has been refitted and improved, and is now one of the most comfortable stopping places in the city. The travelling public and persons desiring pleasant quarters by the week or month, will always find them at the Commercial hotel. Rates of board have been reduced as follows: Day board, $4.50 per week; trans., $1.50 per day; board and lodging, from $6 to $7 per week.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Hedge Miller, an old time Cairoite, but now of St. Louis, is in the city visiting his friends here.

Dr. Rowe, late of Springfield, Illinois, and son of the late United States marshall of that name, has settled in this city and proposes to hereafter make this his home.

Alderman John Robinson, we are glad to say, is improving, and will soon be able to be at his post again. He is one of the most energetic members of the new council.

TOWN TALK.

Many of the shade trees on Twelfth street, between Walnut and Cedar, have been cut down and chopped into firewood.

The sale of furniture at the residence of Col. J. S. Readon was postponed until today—Wednesday—at 9 o'clock.

The firing of pistols at a late hour on Monday night was occasioned by a party of young men congregated on the corner of Eleventh street and Commercial avenue, shouting obscenities.

The sidewalk on Nineteenth street has been lowered as per order of the council. This new improvement gives Nineteenth street a much improved appearance, and it is now, if the residents there see proper, to be made one of the prettiest streets in the city.

The horse catcher is loose again, and proposes to pound every long hand running at large within the city limits. Therefore, on and after this date, owners of dogs will do well to see that they are "kennel up." A couple of experienced dog catchers can find employment by calling upon chief of Police McHale, at the city clerk's office. Call immediately.

POLICE COURT.

(Before F. Bross, P. M.)

The police courts were full of business yesterday, no less than nine persons being before their honor, to have their little differences adjusted properly.

"Plain drunks" were numerous, in fact almost "too numerous to mention." Under the head James Mack, Barney Moran, Wm. Prior, John Cain (not our deputy sheriff but that other John Cain), John Sweeny, J. Smith, Wm. Ross, Pat Kennedy, John Cain (not come back if he could), Peter Cain, August Riser, Michael Gurey, Joseph Poter, and Pat Boyle were up and justice dealt out to them in unbearably doses. Some were sent to the caboose, others given time to leave the city, and a few discharged.

John Smith, for disturbing the peace, inasmuch as he had been very disorderly and used very offensive language, was taxed $5 and the impetrates. Not being possessed of the requisite amount wherewith to liquidate, he was provided with five day's board and lodging at the expense of the city.

William Estess, for threatening and abusive language, was sent to board at the McCarthy house for four days. He will assist the jailor in cleaning the streets.

An individual, at one time a well-to-do butcher in this city, was before Judge Bross yesterday on a warrant sworn out by the above named individual's wife, charging him with having made threats against her person and life. She was fearful that unless he was put under bonds to keep the peace, he would carry these threats into execution. The butcher was held to bail to appear at the next term of the court of assizes, and in the meantime keep the peace towards his wife.

(Before J. J. Bird, P. M.)

Jennie Robinson and Polly Lee, colored damsels, for offensive language were each fined $5 and the "aggressives."

ORNAMENTAL.

Hanging baskets and rustic stands may be seen at the Arlington house for a few days.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The firm of Schmetzstorff & Co., bakers and confectioners, No. 34 Eighth street, this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Schmetzstorff retiring. The business will be continued at the old stand by Mr. Rudolph Heissner, who is authorized to receive all money due the late firm, and will pay all their outstanding accounts.

H. SCHMETZSTORFF,
RUDOLPH HEISSNER.

Cairo, May 1, 1873.

TURNER PICNIC.

The Cairo Turner society will hold a grand picnic near Mound City, on the Cairo and Vincennes railroads, on Sunday next. A special train, to make three trips, has been chartered, and will leave the foot of Seventh street as follows: At 9 o'clock, a.m. and 1 and 2:30 p.m. The last train will return to Cairo at 7 o'clock, p.m. The excursions will consist in driving, race-running, gymnastic performances, etc. A good time is anticipated, and a general invitation is extended to all. Tickets for the round trip 50 cents.

FLORAL BEAUTIES.

Ladies, call and see the springing baskets and rustic flower stands at the Arlington house. They have just arrived from New York, and exceed anything of the kind ever offered for sale in this city.

PUREST WHITE.

As warm weather is approaching the lovers of ice cream will be glad to learn that Misses Sampson & Clarkson have fitted up and refurbished, in elegant style, their ice cream parlor. Their menu and soda fountain has also been put in running order, and nothing is wanting about the establishment to make the pleasure and comfort of their patrons complete.
